OUR COVENANT

Grateful that "we know that our Redeemer liveth";

Mindful that vast millions of women and children can never hear the tidings of great joy unless Christian women bear the message;

Remembering that Jesus made loving obedience the supreme test of discipleship, and that His last solemn command was "Go make disciples of all nations";

We gladly enter into this Covenant of Obedience, that we will not cease to make offerings of Prayer, Time and Money to the end that the women and children of the world may know the love of Jesus.

PROCEEDINGS

The doors of the Temple were opened, and through the portals into Hollywood's beautiful new Methodist Episcopal Church, Pacific Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary was graciously welcomed for this, her forty-second Annual Meeting, October 5, 1930. The morning service at eleven o'clock was in charge of the pastor of the hostess church, who introduced the President, Mrs. Alfred Matthews. Mrs. Matthews responded with words of greeting, and announced the sessions to be held during the four days of the meeting. The Reverend Glenn Randall Phillips, the pastor, preached the sermon of the morning. His subject, 'Fragrance for All." The text, John 12-3, "And the whole house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume." The Junior Rally, under the leadership of Mrs. Lucile Locke White, is always of interest to young and old alike, and is a fine demonstration of the work being done for the children along the lines of missionary education. Dr. Eda Johnson told them stories of children of China.

The Young People's Rally at 5:00 p.m. was largely attended by enthusiastic groups from a number of organizations. The presentation of Branch and Conference awards and honor pins, was an interesting feature of the hour. At the conclusion of the program a buffet supper was served.

The evening session, a welcome and God speed to our new Missionaries, Mrs. S. F. Johnson, presiding.

7:00 p.m.—Organ Recital.

Hymn 107—"Joy to the World."

7:30—Anthem: The Choir.

Mrs. Alfred Matthews led in the responsive service. Mrs. J. K. Cecil presented the new missionaries, Miss Frances E. Johnson, Miss Hazel M. Erhart, Miss Alice E. Whitney, to Mrs. Johnson, who introduced them and each one briefly told of her purpose, and her call. The Commission and words of counsel were spoken by Dr. Frank Herron Smith. Dr. Smith advised them as to their attitude toward America, their attitude toward fellow travelers and people of other lands, and their attitude toward other religions, always remembering "The love of Christ constraineth me," and "I came not to destroy, but to fulfill." Prayer and benediction by Reverend Glenn R. Phillips.

Mrs. Cecil moved that this body confirm the election of Mrs. Frost for the North, and Mrs. Wilsie Martin for the South as Conference Secretaries of the Wesleyan Service Guild to represeent the Woman's Foreign as well as the Woman's Home Missionary Society, until such time as the Wesleyan Service Units get together and elect Conference Secretaries from their own number. Motion seconded and carried.

Prayer—Mrs. E. J. Clinton.

A committee composed of Mesd. J. J. Bryant, Fletcher White, E. J. Clinton was appointed to name the Trustees of the Corporation, and report at the November Executive Meeting. Introduction of the members of the local committee was made by the Chairman, Mrs. Claude L. Kinney.

Mrs. J. A. H. Wilson asked the privilege of a resolution which was read by the Secretary. A motion prevailed that the resolution be referred to the International Department.

The Resolution Committee reported, see page (19).

Mrs. J. K. Cecil requested Mrs. Johnson to come to the platform and in a few chosen words presented her with a love gift from her co-workers. Mrs. Johnson was greatly surprised but responded graciously.

It was voted that Mrs. Cora Cassill and Mrs. J. J. Bryant audit the recording Secretary's minutes for this meeting.

The President, Mrs. Alfred Matthews talked upon the appropriations for the new year which we as a Branch had assumed. At the close of her talk we felt no 'Alabastor Box" was too choice or too costly for us to put into the work of advancing the Kingdom of our Lord and His Christ.

"Forward With One Another" was the subject of Mrs. Cecil's heart to heart talk as she presented the plans for the coming year.

"Our Answer to the Orient"—Mrs. S. F. Johnson.

It was voted to confirm the nominations for Conference and district officers, and Standing Committees as posted. "Joy to the World" was sung.

Dr. Lincoln A. Ferris pronounced the benediction, and the Forty-Second Annual Meeting of Pacific Branch was declared adjourned by the President, Mrs. Alfred Matthews.

Respectfully Submitted,

MRS. W. C. SHARON,

Recording Secretary.

FOREIGN REPORT

Mrs. S. F. Johnson, Corresponding Secretary.

This being my twenty-first and last annual report as Corresponding Secretary of the Branch, a brief review may be of interest.

In 1905 there were twelve missionaries in the care of the Branch, three of whom are still rendering efficient service, two have gone to their heavenly home and seven have retired. That year the financial receipts of the Branch were $18,632.00, an increase of $1,400.00 for the year, showing that the people in our churches then "had a mind to work" just as we find today.

All honor we would give to those who laid the broad foundations on which the building could continue to enlarge. Some of these are still with us and helping, while many others have joined in loyal service, thus allowing the work to increase every year until now we can report forty-seven missionaries in active service, two of these being detained in the homeland for health reasons and four others because of family responsibilities. The financial receipts of the Branch for this year (not including payment from the Miss Emma Dickinson estate) are $146,178 which means an increase over twenty-five years ago of $127,546, showing that while there has been a large denominational growth during that time, the loyalty to our work for women and children of other lands has been maintained to a high degree through the faithful work of our representatives in the churches at the home base.

With the highest interests of the work in view I asked six months ago to be relieved of the responsibilities of this office at this time and a successor has been found to whom we will all loyally turn. All I ask of you is that you give her the same gracious helpfulness you have always given me and then under the guidance and blessing of our heavenly Father she will enjoy the work so full of hope and promise and it will continue to grow.

New Missionaries

A year ago when telling of the new missionaries we included two who were accepted and assigned, subject to some further preparation. These are now ready for service and two others have been accepted, one of whom expects to sail in February and the other some months later. All four are devout christian young women, well-equipped educationally, and with the real missionary spirit. They are Miss Frances E. Johnson whose home is in Bell, her appointment being to South India; Miss Hazel M. Erhart of San Jose and Miss Alice E. Whitney are assigned to Rhodesia, Africa; and Miss Madeline Tillman who is now taking a year's work in Columbia University and the Union Theological Seminary is appointed to Japan where she hopes to do kindergarten and primary work.

Furloughed Missionaries

The missionaries who have come on regular furlough this year are: Ada Marie Kennard and Eleanor B. Stallard, of India; Miss Marguerite Decker, of the Philippine Islands; Dr. Eda L. Johnson and Ruth E. Jayne, of China; Anna Laura White, of Japan; and Helen C. Gilliland, of Uruguay, South America; all of whom are anxious to return to their respective fields as soon as possible. Two others have married during the year, Gertrude S. Beesemyer, becoming Mrs. G. B. Reece, of Los Angeles, and Carrie B. Osburn, marrying Rev. Shot Mondol of Calcutta, India.

Africa

No intelligent christian can face the advancing work of the Kingdom and be depressed; neither can any intelligent christian face the world of today and be satisfied. "Advance" is the record in the sections of Africa where we are at work. Six years ago because of failing health Martha Drummer came home from Quessua, Angola, and for the first time since then, we of this Branch, have a representative there. Violet B. Crandall who, following six months study of the Portuguese language in Portugal, went on from there to the Portuguese colony of Angola in July where the Quessua missionaries eagerly awaited her arrival.

Our largest work is in Rhodesia, where we have four well-equipped stations. Sarah N. King is happily at work again as principal of the Nyadiri boarding school, while Oril E. Penney with renewed health is superintending the Old Umtali babyfold and conducting health clinics for the boarding school pupils. Grace Clark, after active itinerating while on furlough, expects to return for a fourth term of service in February, she taking two of our new missionaries with her.

Burma

Sadie May Smith has had a difficult year physically, but her last letter shows that she is hard at work again. The earthquake of last Spring destroyed much property in her town, Pegu, but she was away at the time. No harm "came nigh our dwelling", either, and comparatively few christians suffered losses. Sadie writes: 'I have hoped to give twenty-five years of missionary service in Burma. Perhaps I may —it is in the Lord's hands."

China

In most of the stations throughout China the work has proceeded without interruption, though in Kiukiang, Kiangsi Province and in Kutien, South China, the bandits (mostly unpaid soldiers) were so aggressive that the American Consuls called our missionaries, Helen Ferris, Rose Waldron and Eva F. Sprunger (others with them) to Shanghai for safety. They hope to return to their work soon, but cannot tell as national control of conditions is uncertain.

In the same general region as Kiukiang, Grace Z. Lentz writes from Chinkang that she wonders if we are reading dire tales about conditions there when they know nothing about them. The work of the hospital where she serves goes steadily on. She writes: "Thus far our part of the country has been quite peaceful and free from brigands and we have greatly enjoyed going on with our work uninterrupted." One whole floor is now used for tubercular patients. Bertha L. Riechers is still in Germany trying to get well enough to go on to China. Incidentally she is helping our work in a good many Auxiliaries there and having also a good visit with her father.

Last summer Dr. and Mrs. John R. Mott spent some time in China, after which Mrs. Mott wrote: "Years ago I was much startled by Benjamin Kidd's claim in his 'Science of Power' that the women and the schools hold the future of any country. During my five visits to the orient through a period of over thirty years it has been my greatest interest to study conditions and tendencies among women and girls. I am fully convinced that the greatest contribution which can be made is to give a thoroughly christian education from earliest youth through college years to the women of any nation." Just after that world journey, Dr. Mott told us in Columbus: "I found ten millions of eyes looking Christward as compared with one million a few years ago."

In North China our two medical workers are busy and happy. Dr. Lantz as director of medical work and health education for two districts travels much with the district evangelists, holding clinics and giving physical examinations to many students. So far this year she has visited fifty villages and cities, given 844 treatments and examined 1269 persons, mostly children of our day schools, besides giving 45 health addresses and vaccinated 98 children.

Florence Evans has not had an easy time getting adjusted to the climate but writes that she is now very well and glad she is there. So far the study of the language is her chief occupation.

Ellen H. Suffern has returned to her work in Hinghwa, South China, sailing August 1st. Our President, Mrs. Nicholson, was concerned about the safety of those scheduled to sail in August and wrote asking Bishop Gowdy for his opinion. He cabled: "Absolutely safe." So we did not cancel any sailing dates.

Mary Louise Lowe besides her language study has been teaching some classes in Hwa Nan College. Four Chinese graduates of that College are teaching in our school at Kutien and wrote a composite letter recently from which I quote the following paragraph: "No doubt you have heard about the present situation in China and the anti-christian movement which appeared in China a few years ago. In our opnion the present situation is only a conflict between military leaders which every country meets during a transition period The church work in this vicinity is going on as smoothly as before. It is not affected by the anti-christians very much so we think this movement is only a test of the true christians. Perhaps it was God's method of reclaiming His truth. Many educated people in colleges and in government employ who did not pay attention to the church before are now beginning to question about christianity. It is really nothing compared to the persecutions which Paul, Peter and the other disciples met. Frends, please remember us in your prayers that we may always look to Christ as our Leader and Friend."

India

It is seventy years since the first missionaries of our denomination went to India and now there are 500,000 members of our church there, which is a strong evangelizing power among the millions of non-christians. Slowly but surely, under the power of God, "a little leaven leaveneth the whole". The great hope of an indigenous christian church is being realized as with humility we work not only for the people but with many oriental christian leaders in developing a civilization adapted to their need.

Political turmoil, sectional as it is, has not greatly hampered our missions anywhere and not at all in most of the stations.

After a stimulating and helpful furlough, Charlotte T. Holman has gone back for a fifth term of service in her much loved India. She will probably be appointed to serve with her sister in Agra though that will be decided at the annual Conference convening shortly after she arrives. M. Adelaide Clancy expects to be with us next winter on furlough after three full terms of service, mostly in connection with the Muttra Bible Training School. She commends the oriental christian leaders and wishes that more of them would not shrink from responsibility.

Olive E Kennard and G. Evelyn Hadden are leaders in evangelistic work in North India. On her itinerating trips Miss Kennard takes with her India nurses as well as Bible Women and each morning they treat the sick, many of whom have come miles to meet them. On a recent journey over the district they had to give 206 treatments one morning and never less than forty per day. Her nurses are real evangelists also so that those well enough to listen get the gospel message also.

Most of Miss Hadden's work is in non-christian villages though she finds some christian groups needing help. After years of distinctly educational work she is enjoying the definite evangelistic contacts.

In Indus River Conference we find Grace Pepper Smith in exangelistic work, Ethel M. Palmer in charge of the Hissar Boarding School, while Agnes D. Dunn is traveling over a large part of India supervising the health of pupils in many of our boarding schools; and so these three represent the three active forces in the advance of christianity—preaching, teaching and social service of a Christ-like character. Each enjoys her work and believes tremendously in its value in the building of our Lord's Kingdom. Truly it is all evangelistic whether or not distinctly labeled thus.

Doris I. Welles in city evangelistic work in Calcutta has great joy in the use of her new car. Filling it with Bible Women she travels through that great city and its suburbs preaching, visiting homes and organizing and supervising day schools. Our young people here did fine work when they helped in the purchase of that new car.

Everyone who knows anything of the work being done by Dr. Anna M. Wood commends it highly. A medical evangelist is she and when as during the past year a girls' boarding school or a boys' school was needing leadership she added that to her work. During the past year she has treated 16,000 patients of whom 5,000 were new cases. She needs more help in caring for that large work.

Far from the region of which we have been writing, in Bidar, Hyderabad Province, Mrs. Margaret C. Ernsberger is principal of a steadily growing boarding school until now there are 91 on the roll. During vacation she had to write 80 scholarship letters which is different from the occupation of most vacations here. With a fine corps of teachers, with all pupils who took government examinations passing well, and no political disturbances in evidence, all goes well in this region.

Japan

The three missionaries we have had there so long, M. Helen Russell, K. Grace Wythe and Anna Laura White happen to be all on furlough now; Miss Russell retiring the coming winter. Thirty-five years ago while a teacher in Napa College (now College of the Pacific) she heard the call to Japan where she has served long and well in Tokio and later as principal of our large boarding school in Hirosaki. Miss Wythe and Miss White, while at the home base, are helping us to get a broader vision of need and opportunity in developing christian living in Japan.

Korea

If there s any happier woman in Korea than our Grace L. Dillingham you will have difficulty in finding her as the long anticipated new High School building for her school in Pyeng Yang is now a reality. Late pictures show it to be nearly completed so it is doubtless being occupied by this time. There are 350 students in the school.

Malaya

How glad we are to again add Malaya in telling the story of the activities of our Branch missionaries as Thelma G. Ashley has now been in Singapore for nearly a year. She is very happy in her work where she has charge of the lower grades in the Methodist Girls' School. There are 746 girls in this school of whom 400 with their teachers are under the direction of Miss Ashley. Of her fourteen teachers, one is Chinese, one Malay, one Jewish and one Indian which again shows us the cosmopolitan character of our work in Singapore where christian contacts are far-reaching. Most of the teaching is, of necessity, in the English language.

Philippine Islands

Miss Marguerite Decker, so long the principal of the Harris Memorial Bible Training School, Manila, is now after four terms of service, enjoying her furlough with friends in Portland, Oregon, where incidentally she has been glad to add twelve pounds in weight. She expects to arrive in California in early November, where she will be very welcome. Her work in Manila has been of a distinctly valuable character in developing a well-trained lay leadership for a large number of churches. Gladys Black is also a valued teacher in the same school and has now an additional appointment from Bishop Lee in that she is to spend a few months in district evangelistic work, directing and advising many of the former graduates of the Manila school. This delays her regular furlough so that she will not arrive here until the Spring of 1931.

South America

Helen C. Gilliland was gladly anticipating a broader field of service as under the appointment of Bishop Miller she was to organize and supervise the work for and with women in the Conferences on both the east and west coast of that great land, but the condition of her health demanded early furlough and now she is trying to reestablish good health so as to undertake further service.

Lois Joy Hartung, of both South America and Mexico, has recovered her health but the well-being of her father and mother requires her presence so she has accepted the position of pastor of the Congregational Church in their home town, McLaughlin, South Dakota. We congratulate the church on the type of ability and genuine piety thus secured in its pastoral leadership.

REPORT OF HOME BASE SECRETARY

Mrs. J. K. Cecil

Early in the book of Genesis, God made to Abram a promise so broad in its reach, that it was entirely beyond Abraham's comprehension. He said: "In thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.'

Just a year ago, many women from this Branch joined thousands of others in Columbus, Ohio, to witness a great fulfillment of this promise.

As they heard the joyous witnessing of the nineteen race families represented there, it was not difficult to foresee the time when truly all families of the earth shall know our Lord.

As these women brought back to us word pictures of that great occasion, they warmed our hearts and reassured our faith. Today, we claim anew that promise to Abram, and bring the first harvest of a new circle of years.

One of our richest gleanings is the continuance of our revered President as our official head. This gives us a sense of calm and confidence, not only for this immediate meeting, but as we start into a new year of sowing.

Some of our reapers are shifting places. After twenty-five years in one part of the field, Mrs. S. F. Johnson takes up another work. What a quarter of a century this has been! Increasing wisdom, faithfulness, justice! Twenty-five years of enrichment to the Foreign Field and to the missionaries, the courses of whose lives she has so largely directed: twenty-five years of enrichment to Pacific Branch and to the General Society. Happy are we that as one door closes, another opens, that her broad experience may continue to bless us!

Another reaper who has brought blessing to her office through years of service, is the Editor of our Branch Messenger, Mrs. N. S. Hanson. Her rare character and her happy enthusiasm have filtered through the columns of this valued paper, into our own hearts. As she shifts from the place of editorship, we hold her fast in our love.

Yet another reaper, whose enthusiastic devotion has brought cheer to many a weary returning missionary, and confidence to many timid but going ones, has served in a double roll—Chairman of the Transit Committee, and Publisher of the Branch Messenger. That she may give her time wholly to the work of caring for "our precious girls", as she calls them, Mrs. E. L. Anderson asks to be released from the office of Publisher. We are so happy that she will continue to give the warm hand-clasp of greeting and adieu, for the Branch, as our girls come and go.

An unusual number of our Branch Officiary have been called to rest during the past year. Mrs. George Smyth, for Twenty-one years our loved President; Dr. Lena Leonard Fisher, for several years our First Vice-President, and valued by the entire Woman's Foreign Missionary Society as our most brilliant and inspiring speaker, and four of our Board of Managers, Mrs A. H. Gates, Mrs. G. B. Ulrich, Mrs. Percy P. Vane and Mrs. W. R. Lane.

One hundred nine auxiliaries paid two-thirds dues the First Quarter.

Twenty more auxiliaries took Thank Offerings than the preceding year. Our very excellent Thank Offering leaflet, written by Mrs. B. Dudley Snudden was a great inspiration and help. Wesleyan Service Guild is steadily gaining in units. By another year both Conferences will have chosen Conference secretaries. They are now averaging more than seven dollars per capita in their giving and are finding in the Guild just the social and service contacts which busy professional and business women need.

Our Zeroless Districts have met with success beyond their expectations. A large percentage of the churches have carried their own dues this year, and in some cases Extension Circles and Auxiliaries have been formed.

While our Young People's Department has not made gains in membership, they have made excellent gains in money. There are losses in our Junior Department, also, but our brave spirited Junior Officers are making these losses a challenge to solve the intricate problems of the Junior age.

We are proud of our new missionaries who are ready to be commissioned for service—

Miss Hazel M. Erhart and Miss Madeline Tillman from California Conference; Miss Frances E. Johnson and Miss Alice E. Whitney from Southern California Conference.

Special honor has been brought to our Branch this year, in a literary way, through the story contest conducted by the Friend. Miss Myrtle Bartlett of Los Angeles, Mrs. Margaret Denning of Pacific Palisades, Miss Marjorie Lusk of Santa Ana, and Miss Frances Johnson, one of our new missionaries, wrote prize winning stories.

One hundred twenty-two auxiliaries have made gain in membership.

Eighty-nine auxiliaries made twelve points on the goal, Southern California Conference, winning by just one point the prize—a red satin banner, sent from an auxiliary in China to our Sixtieth Anniversary Celebration in Columbus, Ohio.

Thus, with every Department working at its best, we hasten the day when all families of the earth shall be blessed.

CALIFORNIA CONFERENCE

Mrs. John Nute, Corresponding Secretary

Missionary activity still runs true in California Conference, although economic conditions have effected a less interested membership and the gving in some localities.

The fall Conference Rally was held at Trinity, San Francisco, when reports of the Columbus meeting were given. The delegates and others who attended have visited many auxiliaries during the year, spreading the enthusiasm of that great meeting.

The Conference Anniversary was held in June in the beautiful new Temple in San Francisco. Dr. Flynn, of Trinity, Berkeley, gave a most inspiring address.

Mrs. Johnson spent a week on San Francisco district this year for cultivation work, speaking to representatives of nearly every auxiliary. Many new members were secured in zero churches, and one new auxiliary at Geneva Avenue was organized.

District meetings were held at Oakland, Vallejo, Chico, and Salinas. All were well attended, reports were encouraging, and well adapted programs were presented. California Conference is proud of the two new missionaries, Miss Erhart and Miss Tillman, going to the field this year. Their homes are in San Jose and both are graduates of the College of the Pacific.

The northern part of the state occupied by Nevada and Redwood-Shasta districts, and stretching from the ocean across the Sacramento Valley and beyond the Sierras, is largely a Home Mission field and Woman's Foreign Missionary Society work is slow. In Nevada district there are nineteen churches, with two W. F. M. S. auxiliaries. Portola is new this year. Redwood-Shasta district has fifty-two churches and sixteen auxiliaries. Mrs. Lundeen has the work well in hand, and we may expect fruit from the seed sown through the faithful service of the devoted officers of the district.

Sacramento district has a gain in money this year, but for the first time in several years, a small loss in membership. Mrs. Burcham reports a Thank Offering taken in each auxiliary. Chico made a gain of twenty-three per cent in membership, and made fifteen points on the President's calendar. Marysville made nearly fifty per cent in membership, while Sacramento Epworth has a gain of twenty-three per cent. Lodi made fourteen points on the President's calendar, and Stockton Central twelve.

Oakland district reports members in each church on the district One new auxiliary of fifteen members was organized at Hayward. Mrs. Davidson reports the quarterly district executive meetings very helpful. Ten auxiliaries made gifts to the Retirement Fund. Seventeen Thank Offerings have been taken, and twelve auxiliaries report a gain in membership and subscription to the Friend.

Mrs. Flegal has just completed her second year as Secretary of San Francisco district. Reports show a gain in both money and members. Thank Offering services were held by twenty auxiliaries. Nineteen made a gain in members, twelve completed twelve points on the President's calendar, and sixteen met their apportionment.

Sixty Thank Offerings have been taken, amounting to $4,429. Then there are eight Memorial members and $662.48 raised for Immediate Needs. We close the year with a total of 184 organizations, 5,682 members in all departments, and receipts amounting to ....24,095.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA CONFERENCE

Mrs. Cora M. Cassil Conference Corresponding Secretary

Figures and a few facts are interesting, but they give a very incomplete story of the consecration and loyalty to plans of the women of this Conference. When final reports were in and we gathered at Hollywood for the Annual Meeting, we found many items that gave us joy and others that challenged us to do better work the coming year. The beautiful red banner, one of the love gifts sent to the Sixtieth Anniversary Meeing, was presented this Conference for having the largest number of Societies making twelve or more of the goals. Sixty-two societies are having their names printed with this report for bringing us this honor.

Arizona District has a fine increase in Auxiliary members and also in total members all departments. At the close of the third quarter apportionment and aim had been reached. Miss Ellen Suffern, of China, with Mrs. W. R. Stewart, District Secretary, planning her itinerary, did fine work in extending the work.

Fresno District had the largest increase in Auxiliary members and total membership all departments. They made apportionment and went over tehir aim. Mrs. R. E. Wright, who has been so diligent in her work on this District for the past six years, is now a resident of the Arizona District. She will be missed on the Fresno District, but we rejoice that Mrs. Geo. E. Root, of Sanger, has consented to take this very important place. Mrs. Wright is our delegate to the General Executive meeting in Springfield, Massachusetts.

Long Beach District, Mrs. J. J. Bryant, Secretary, had the largest number of Auxiliaries (eighteen) making twelve points on our goal, kept all zeros removed and made apportionment and aim.

Los Angeles District, Miss Clara A. Miller, Secretary, reports a Thank Offering in every Auxiliary, kept all zeros removed and had the largest number of Auxiliaries reporting an increase in total members.

Pasadena District, Mrs. Fred A. Link, Secretary, kept all zeros removed, made apportionment and aim.

San Diego District, Mrs. H. M. Palmer, Secretary, had an increase in total membership, largest number of Societies observing "Three Days" and made apportionment.

The District Secretaries have been untiring in their efforts. During September President's meetings were hld in all the Districts so that never before have the new plans gone out as early or been received with more enthusiasm.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

The report of the Young People's Department of the Pacific Branch for the year ending in September, 1930, is the final balance reachd by fine achievements of many organizations often offset by the lagging efforts of others. To comprehend the report one must see behind the sum total the individual reports of organizations hard at work, each making its own peculiar contribution to the whole; results attained through the enthusiasm of members in bringing others into membership, by the clear presentation of stewardship in pledging many as three?fold stewards, some achieving unusual results in raising money and others making their finest contribution in missionary education in their own church and community.

Awards were won by some but many others earned equal recognition. The Estey Cup was won by the Sepulveda Standard Bearers, while the Standard Bearers of Wesley Church, Richmond, were a close second; the Lombard Cup was won by the Young Woman's Society of First Church, Long Beach, with the Young Women of Sepulveda notable contestants. The Banner for the highest per capita Thank Offering went to the San Fernando S. B. ($5.75 per capita), while Lincoln Avenue Young Women were second with $5.00 per capita. The Pennant was again won by Long Beach district for the highest per cent of organizations reaching first class. Second in this competition was San Diego district, wth a higher per capta mileage but a lower per cent of organizations attaining first class.

The lovely candlesticks from our Young Peoples Missionaries for the greatest per cent gains along various lines were awarded as follows: For gains in stewards, Richmond Wesley S. B.; in members, Carrie Osborn Y. W. Long Beach First Church; in money, Burbank S. B.; in subscriptions, Anaheim S. B.; and in day shares, West Adams Y. W.

The Standard Bearers of Pacific Branch entered into the Peace Essays contest in a fine way. Essay contests were held in five districts. The winner for Southern California Conference was Lorraine Hagen, of Riverside, while the California Conference award went to a boy, Ted Nickerson, of Trinity Church, Berkeley. Ted Nickerson's essay also won the Branch award and took second place in the national contest. A set of nineteen essays wes presented to our representative for him at the Young People's banquet at General Executive. Since writing the essay, he has worked his way to South America and has actually visited the Christ of the Andes, the subject of the Peace Essays.

Rallies, or group meetings, were held in every district in the Branch, a result achieved for the first time in many years. In addition, Long Beach District held an officers house party and Southern California Conference had a fine conference banquet, while California Conference held an all day retreat. In all, nearly 1,500 girls (and boys) attended, thus meeting with others to hear the plans discussed and to get acquainted with their district, conference and branch officers, and to hear and meet some of our fine missionaries.

Thus we review many groups really achieving results for the Kingdom. At the same time many other societies lagging at their task have lowered the average for the branch. Stewardship seems not to have been presented in many organizations, and losses in membership and small contributions in money tells of girls who have failed to present the fine program prepared for them, failed to grasp the true significance of a task in which each society may count on full cooperation from our Heavenly Father and confidently expect results.

So we come to the end of the year unable to report gains in some lines, but too much credit cannot be given to those groups of consecrated girls who have raised the average along all lines higher than ever before. Though there has been a loss of nine societies and 105 members, there have been gains of 168 stewards, 20 subscriptions to The Friend, 237 Blessing Boxes in use, $14.75 Contingent Fund, $264.00 Thank Offering and $315.00 Special Work. Losses in dues and Day Shares have made the total gain for the year $449.00, a most noble achievement in this year of unusual depression.

For all of this we thank our Heavenly Father, grateful for the joy we share in this great service, and for the faith that He will guide and bless our efforts in the year to come.

JUNIOR DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Lucile Locke White, Superintendent

Each year it becomes increasing difficult to estimate from statistics the actual achievements of the Juniors. The number of churches using the correlated plan is larger each quarter, especially in Southern California, and when our work is carried on in the Sunday School many more children receive missionary instruction than can be reported as paid members.

California Conference this year reports a splendid increase both in Kings Heralds and Little Light Bearers, a total gain of 83 members.

Southern California Conference had an unfortunate summer. In the three largest districts in the Branch the Sunday Schools were closed and all children's activities suspended for several months on account of an epidemic of infantile paralysis. This resulted in a distressing decrease of 673 members, making a net decrease for the Branch of 590. There was a corresponding decrease in money, the total for the year being 3,753, more than a thousand dollars less than last year.

However, in spite of these handicaps, we had fifteen bands and circles, with a hundred or more members; Kings Heralds: Highland Park, St. Paul's, Wilshire, Huntington Park, Whittier, and Long Beach Belmont. Little Light Bearers: Santa Ana First, Glendale First, Wilshire, Huntington Park, Long Beach Grace, Berkeley Trinity, Palo Alto; and Pasadena First King's Heralds and Los Angeles First Little Light Bearers had more than two hundred members.

Berkeley Trinity and Pomona Trinity were Banner Churches having ten new Life Members. The total number of new Life Members for the Branch was 99.

Subscriptions to the Junior Missionary Friend were 2,693, a decrease of four hundred.

Awards for the year were won by Los Angeles First Little Light Bearers and Long Beach Belmont King's Heralds for the largest increase in membership; and Burbank Little Light Bearers and Santa Ana King's Heralds for the largest percentage gain in membership. Long Beach Grace Little Light Bearers and Pomona Trinity King's Heralds had the most new Life Members and Rialto and St. Stephens Oakland most on the Honor Roll.

The Junior leaders, Conference, District and local, have given enthusiastic and earnest support and are looking forward to another year of work with our children, the great "hope of the future."

EXTENSION DEPARTMENT

Miss Laura E. Charnock, Secretary

The Extension Department has a decrease of 87 extension members. If we have decreased in numbers, we have made good in other ways, 141 having become regular members.

There is an increase of 91 Christian Stewards among extension members and increase of 120 Tithing Stewards.

Fresno District had an increase of 40 in extension membership and will receive the prize. Los Angeles District had an increase of 27.

Arizona District receives the prize for following up the churches made zeroless last year and reporting the largest number of organizations.

The prize for the district reporting the largest number of churches participating in "The Three Days" goes to San Diego District and there is a tie between Arizona and San Diego Distrcts for removing the most zeros, so that prize will be divided between the two districts.

Long Beach, Los Angeles, Pasadena, Oakland and San Francisco Districts still remain zeroless.

The plans for the new year are "In harmony with our Society for birthday membership, we call attention to the fact that an extension member may be secured as a birthday gift."

"Founders Day being the birthday celebration of our Society, let every auxiliary present a birthday gift of one zero removed."

We will continue the support of Miss M. M. Decker, Philippine Islands, and Miss K. Grace Wythe, of Japan. Circumstances have arisen which made Miss Lois Joy Hartnung ask to be put on the detained list. We hope that in time she will again be our Extension Missionary in Mexico.

We express appreciation to all Extension Secretaries who so faithfully serve in this department. All credit for the success of the work is due to them.

We are sorry to lose Mrs. Gordon, of Fresno District; Mrs. Teague, of Arizona District; and Mrs. Green, of Sacramento District. They all feel they must give up the work. We are grateful for their years of faithful service.

We are happy to welcome Mrs. Robert Wright as Extension Secretary of Arizona District. Fresno and Sacramento Districts have not yet been supplied.

May wea ll press on together, asking in the name of Jesus for greater results than we have ever had before.

Possibly in your auxiliaries you are needing some special incentive to interest your women, and also to bring up your finances.

There are millions of girls in India who have never heard the wonderful Gospel story with its message of love. Childhood is ever trustful, but to these who have known so little of love it means more than to our own. Would it not be a good investment of thirty dollars to give one of them a chance and make her life an asset instead of a liability?

It may be that the Heavenly Father is calling to you through this message to become a co-laborer with Him in the extension of His Kingdom.

The Secretary of Field Support is always happy to give you any further information.

CHRISTMAS BOXES and HOSPITAL SUPPLIES

Mrs. W. R. Peckham, Chairman

This is such joyful work. Sometimes I feel like calling myself "Mrs. Santa Claus," for the letters come to me from the Missionaries telling me what they would like and then here come the letters from all you dear people saying you want to send the missionaries just what they want

I wish I had time to read you some of these letters, but I want to tell you about just one of them. A dear old lady, 82 years old, wrote asking for the names of all the Missionaries of Pacific Branch so that she could pray for them every day. She also wanted the names of some of the very needy places to send boxes to. She sent five boxes to our schools and hospitals. She says: "I am an invalid, 82 years old, and cannot get out to do work for the Master. But I have time and my eyes are undimmed and my right hand has not lost its cunning. It is a great pleasure to feel that I may be able to help even in this small way." And so as she prays she works; "she hath done what she could." Many lovely things as well as many very practical things have been sent to the field this year, lovely little layettes for babies, bags filled with many useful articles, quilts, blankets, typewriters, victrolas and a wonderful box of surgical instruments, etc.

I would like you to write and tell me what your Auxiliary Christmas Box program was like so that I may pass it on.

We do not want your Christmas Box work to hinder your regular work, but there are many things you can make out of things you have in your home that would be a blessing on the field.

One of the Missionaries suggests that you write to the Missionary you wish to send a box and find out just what she wants, as many times she receives a Box that she is obliged to pay duty on that she cannot use in her work. A good idea is to send her enough money to cover the duty.

Do not send Boxes to me. Each Auxiliary must send its own packages and pay its own postage, as the Branch provides no money for this purpose. No cash credit is given for this work; it is a labor of love. "In as much as ye did it unto one of the least of these my little ones, ye did it unto me."

Mrs. E. J. Clinton

"Oh Lord our God, all this store . . . cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own . . . Both riches and honor come of Thee, and in thine hand is power and might."

We are not able to bring in a statistical report of Stewardship this year, for out of our eleven districts in the Branch only nine elected Stewardship Secretaries last year and five of these resigned during the year. But we are sure from word received from those who carried on and other sources that the work fo Christian Stewardship is not lagging, but I would the word given of old might sound again in our ears—"There is much land to be possessed." We turn confidently to the work of the coming year.

I would like to get the ear of every auxiliary and entreat them to select the most spiritually winsome woman in their group to fill the office of Stewardship Secretary.

While we are responding to the call of Christian Stewardship and emphasizing the Stewardship of prayer and personality and possessions, do we seriously remember that we must, if entrusted with the gift of leadership, render an account of our stewardship of this grace also. Think carefully of this before refusing responsibility if sought out for such service.

Lest we forget, words from the "Friend' must be iterated and reiterated, "It is dangerous for us to go forward unless we go upward; success of achievement through systematic, efficient, enthusiastic service ALONE is not a sufficiently worthy goal—we must keep the spiritual note predominant."

Our plans for the coming year call us all to be "Talebearers of the truth," the truth that stewardship of all life is God s plan and one He signally blesses, not only for the carrying on of His work in the world, but for the spiritual culure, growth and enrichment of our own souls.

Frances Ridley Havergal said, "If all my members are really at His disposal, why should I be put out if today's appointment is some simple work for my hands or errands for my feet, instead of some seemingly more important doing of head or tongue.

If this spirit possess our women with missionary zeal, we will surely go up to possess our lands afar as well as those nearer.

MOUNT HERMON FEDERATE SCHOOL OF MISSIONS

MOUNT HERMON, CALIFORNIA

Mr. W. S. Angwin

The twenty-fourth annual session of the Mount Hermon Federate School of Missions was held this year, July 5th to 12th, inclusive, and was perhaps the most complete in scope of ground covered as well as measuring up in excellence of leadership to any previous session, and the attendance exceeded our expectation.

The daily Bible hour was conducted by Dr. Lapsley A. McAfee, and needless to say was rich in fruitage and furnished just the right beginning to an intensive study of Missions. Dr. McAfee also preached the opening Sunday morning sermon, followed in the evening by Dr. Lincoln A. Ferris, of Long Beach. These were two inspiring services which furnished the spiritual basis for the week's study.

Mrs. Marion Humphreys, of Omaha, a nationally known study leader and a woman of great power and personal charm, gave the lecture course on India and also conducted a large normal study class on the same subject.

The lecture course on "Between the Americas" was given by Mrs. G. Bayard Young, an able leader who had much to add out of her personal experience, having visitedt he West Indies recently.

A new and outstandingly successful feature of the school was a Normal Study Class for Children's Leaders, under the expert direction of Mrs. A. E. Craig, of Berkeley.

Miss Alice B. Bonn, one of Stanford University's "most distinguished" graduates last June, successfully led the Bible and Mission Study for High School and Junior College girls, and directed the pageant on Friday evening.

The Rev. and Mrs. Herman Pettit again this year conducted the School of Missions for children in connection with the Daily Vacation Bible School, and their splendid work won the admiration and appreciation of all.

Missionaries were present from India, Persia, Korea, South America and Porto Rico, and added much through their messages at the Sunset hour and in the evening lectures.

The beautiful new Administration Building, with its attractively equppied lounge, furnished added comfort to delegates attending the conference at beautiful Mount Hermon this year.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA SUMMER SCHOOL OF MISSIONS

Miss Myrth Bartlett

The twenty-second annual session of the Summer School of Missions under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Council of Southern California met in the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Sept. 22-25, instead of in June, as in former years. This new date met with very enthusiastic response, coming as it does just at the beginning of the year's missionary work in the various churches.

The program this year was planned more than ever for intensive study of missions and methods. More five-day courses were given with less time set aside for individual lectures, although these were not lacking. Following the quiet hour of worship each morning at 9:30, Mrs. H. C. Bell, General Field Secretary of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Lutheran Church, conducted the "Bible Hour," with the general topic of "The Bible, a Missionary Book." In this and her teaching of one of the Foreign Study books, "A Cloud of Witnesses" (Singmaster), she presented the history and scope of missions in a most impressive and helpful way.

The other Foreign Study book for this year, "India Looks to Her Future" (Buck), was made very forceful and real by Dr. Dillon Bronson, who has three times visited India in his world travels, and has been for many years a student of her problems and peoples.

The two Home Study books, "Trailing the Conquistadores" (Inman), and "Between the Americas" (Stowell), were ably presented by Mrs. Hallie Linn Hill, whose work is well known and loved in the Summer School.

Other courses that ran through the week and brought inspiration and fine methods were "Program Building," by Mrs. R. W. Blosser; "Young People's Work," by Mrs. R. E. Merrill, formerly a missionary in China; "Junior Work," by Mrs. A. W. Rider; and "Story Telling," by Mrs. O. L. Bates.

The present needs of the Prohibition Cause were presented by Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler in her address, "America Believes in Fair Play." "Present Day Observations in the Orient" was the title of Mrs. E. D. Gaylord's story of her travels during the summer in China and Japan. And last minute news from India was brought by Mr. Lloyd Lorbeer, of the American Board Mission, who is just home from his work in South India.

Space does not permit a detailed report of the three helpful dramas given, nor of the delightful musical numbers arranged by Mrs. W. H. Bagly, nor of the Fellowship Luncheon on Friday noon, at which seventy-two missionaries from thirteen countries were the honored guests.

One well-loved face was missed this year, that of Dr. Lena Leonard Fisher, who for eight years had conducted the Foreign Study book. A service of tribute was held in her memory on Monday afternoon, and each day the opportunity was presented to join in contributing to a memorial fund in her memory which is to be used for Christian Literature in foreign lands. Three hundred and twenty-five dollars was raised, but the fund is to be kept open for several months so that others may have a share in it. Thus the Summer School of Missions is hoping to stimulate interest and knowledge of the Kingdom of God in foreign fields as well as at home.

STANDARD BEARER CAMP

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA CONFERENCE

The Standard Bearer Camp of Southern California was held in Lower Young Peoples Camp, Pacific Palisades, August 18-25, 1930. It seems strange each year to say that this year's camp was finer than last, yet this has seemed to be the case. Certainly some faults of previous years are rectified in the following years and surely the leaders and girls in growing numbers are definitely praying for Christ's blessing throughout the week. That He has given this is a consciousness that those who attend cannot fali to grasp.

What were the distinctive features of this year's camp? A smaller group than last year made it possible to have better class room space since the smaller class room was not used as a dormitory. A special effort was made to restrict registration and the infantile paralysis wave tended to lessen the number. Is all, there were 160 full time registrations and many more came for a day or two—less crowded conditions led to better class work and greater comfort throughout the week.

A notable achievement of this year's camp was the efficient work of the girls council. Last year Joy Camp was elected president, with the understanding that her office should hold over for the beginning of this year. Consequently the first meeting called in camp was that of a temporary girls council. They met and formulated the rules for the camp and were ready to announce their decisions at the camp fire hour. Great praise is due them for the fine spirit in which they worked and the splendid cooperation of all the girls in camp.

Miss Laura Soper, of India, who has been of such valuable assistance in past camps, was camp director. Her fine poise of spirit and general popularity with the girls made her leadership a very real contribution to the rising standard of the camp. The choice of Miss Soper as the one who should present the consecration appeal on Friday evening proved to be of His leading for her very logical and deeply earnest presentation of our need of a closer relationship with God could not fail to challenge all who heard, both leaders and girls.

There is not space to tell of the special contributions of many others, of Mrs. A. F. Hasse and her dramatics class, of the excellent hand work class of Mrs. A. W. Golden and the fine exhibit, of the study book taught by Zula Brown, of Agnes King Winkler, hostess, Pauline Terpst, director of music, Mrs. C. N. Vance, whose Bible class the girls so enjoyed, of the Workshop directed by Mrs. Collison, and of the splendid influence of Mrs. Madden, Mrs. Stanley, Eleanor Cadwallader, camp nurse, of Jane Carlson, recreation leader, of Mrs. Sharon, treasurer, and Dorothy Seymour, secretary, and the special speakers, Rev. J. W. Robinson, Anna Laura White, Dr. and Mrs. Core, and others.

The best has been left to the last—our missionaries. There were seven in camp for the week and others for a day at a time. Zulu Brown, Myrth Bartlett, Grace Clark, Eleanor Stallard, Mrs. Vance, Laura Soper and Miss Griffiths. This group of the truly great of the Kingdom brings to our camp a quality of Christian living and impelling testimony which cannot fail to leave a lasting impression on the lives of all. In gratitude we give our thanks to Him that we have been privileged to dwell together and to see His other peoples through their eyes.

PACIFIC BRANCH MESSENGER

Nellie Starr Hanson, Editor
Miss Lulu Heacock, Assistant Editor

Each quarter of the past year 4,000 copies of the Messenger have been printed, folded, wrapped, addressed and mailed out to all parts of our Branch and some have traveled over wide oceans to bring a breath of home to our own Missionary daughters.

One thousand copies of each issue have gone freely to extension members, less than half the number needed. Less than 2,500 paid subscriptions have been received. If the goal of a Messenger subscription for each five members be reached this coming year it will help, but the ratio should be greater than that in order to stimulate the new editor to "do exploits." The retiring editors and publisher give gratified thanks for much kindness received in the years of the trust. It has been a joy to serve.

LITERATURE

Mrs. Jerome Seymour, Secretary

The chief work of the Secretary of Literature for the past year has been an attempt to co-ordinate the machinery of the department so that the publications of the society might be more widely advertised and more universally used throughout the Branch. The Literature Department is so closely allied with the depot of supplies that the only statistical report that can be given must come through the secrtary of the depot of supplies. (See report below)

There were twenty-two meetings at which literature was sold, to a total amount of $625.69.

BEQUESTS AND ANNUITIES

Where it is practical, in the place of making a bequest, it is far better to convert property into cash and place the same in the treasury of the Pacific Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at once, on the annuity plan. By so doing, all possibility of litigation is avoided, and a fair income is assured. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society does not spend money so contributed while the annuitant lives, but invests it in good securities in this country.

RATES OF ANNUITIES

Recommended for all the benevolent Boards of the Church.

Age		Age		Age		Age
40	4.0%	50	5.1%	60	6.0%	70	7.0%
41	4.1%	51	5.1%	61	6.1%	71	7.1%
42	4.2%	52	5.2%	62	6.2%	72	7.2%
43	4.3%	53	5.3%	63	6.3%	73	7.3%
44	4.4%	54	5.4%	64	6.4%	74	7.4%
45	4.5%	55	5.5%	65	6.5%	75	7.5%
46	4.6%	56	5.6%	66	6.6%	76	7.6%
47	4.7%	57	5.7%	67	6.7%	77	7.7%
48	4.8%	58	5.8%	68	6.8%	78	7.8%
49	4.9%	59	5.9%	69	6.9%	79	7.9%

For eighty and over the rate is 8%.

This plan removes all risk of broken wills through skill of lawyers and uncertainty of courts.

Joint Annuity Rates payable during the joint existence and to the survivor of the two lives at rate of age of the younger two.
